

Return to Play Act

Governor Deal and Georgia Legislatures passed House Bill 284 which states that students/athletes cannot participate in athletic events if they have symptoms of a concussion until they have been examined and cleared by an approved health care provider. See your school' coaching staff for further details.